

LEAVE NO VET BEHIND

A Presentation by Ray Parrish Tuesday, October 19th at 7pm Illinois Disciples Foundation (NW Corner of Springfield and Wright)

Ray Parrish is the military counselor for the Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW) Military Counseling Service, which provides confidential discharge counseling, legal, medical, and mental health referrals for GI's and Veterans, counter recruiting and draft information, and more. He will be speaking about Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, the needs of GIs and veterans today, and the current injustices facing soldiers fighting the war in Iraq. Ray served in the USAF during the Vietnam-era. He ran the Midwest Comm. for Military Counseling for a decade until the funding ran out in 1995. He then spent five years as an American Legion Veterans Service Officer until the VA had him fired. For the three years before coming to VVAW, he was a mental health caseworker reintegrating the homeless into the community. If you would like more information about the Military Counseling Service or VVAW, please check out their website at www.vvaw.org
