

schedule and registration at: <http://www.prometheusradio.org/urbana/>. The weekend is $45-125 sliding scale - no one will be turned away for lack of funds.

Radio Free Urbana (WRFU 104.5 FM) will broadcast its first show!

Community members first applied for a low-power FM license 6 years ago. At first it seemed we would be granted a license, and then in 2000, the political tides changed. Thanks to national advocacy groups like Prometheus Radio, media activists fought for and won the licensing of low power stations throughout the country. WRFU has raised over $10,000 to date and is fundraising the last 3,000 needed.

Come celebrate WRFU's first broadcast Sunday from 4 - 7 pm or tune into 104.5 FM around 5 pm.

The Urbana Free Library will be installed with wireless internet - both indoor and out!

As part of the barnraising, the City of Urbana and volunteers from CUWireless Network (CUWiN) are demonstrating the installation a wireless node on the library roof top. This node will be linked to access points on the second floor and front porch of the library where users will be able to get online with their laptops!

Come to the node installation Friday at 3 pm at the library.

The IMC is also home to:

- Cherry Alley Artists - hosts workshops and figure drawing sessions & houses a dozen art studios. Come to Cherry Alley Art Party this Friday at 9 pm!
- OJC Technologies - worker-run software & website development company: www.ojctech.com
- CU Wireless Network - developing free, community wireless mesh network software used internationally: www.cuwireless.net
- Books to Prisoners - responding to prisoner requests for books: books2prisoners.org
- Public i - a monthly free newspaper of the IMC: publici.ucimc.org
- OutZone - a youth group for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning youth.
- Life Strategies Institute - empowering youth in the criminal justice system
- A doula practice... and others.

Support from the community is what makes all this possible.
