

EARTH JUSTICE GATHERING

AT THE GRASSY NARROWS BLOCKADE

JULY 10 - 16, 2006

This summer Rainforest Action Network and ForestEthics invite you to a week of workshops, trainings, stories, campfires, feasting, music and action at the Grassy Narrows blockade.

Workshops and trainings will include:

- * Non-violent Direct Action
- * Decolonization
- * Native land Rights
- * Activist Legal Defence
- * Traditional Stories
- * Boreal Ecology
- * Tree Climbing
- * Media Activism
- * Creative Resistance
- * Radical Cheerleading
- * Forest Defense Tactics and Strategies

Contacts:

Northern First Nations:

Jocelyn Cheechoo - jocelyn@ran.org

Toronto and Southern Ontario:

Kim Fry -
kim@forestethics.org

Thunder Bay and Northern Ontario:

Damien Lee - connectwithdamien@gmail.com

Winnipeg and Manitoba:

Shelagh -
cuban_cigarra@hotmail.com

Wisconsin and Minnesota:

Bob Poeschl - carpepax@riseup.net

For more information, logistical details and updates check out FreeGrassy.org and WheresMcGuinty.ca.

On December 2nd 2002, the indigenous youth of Grassy Narrows lay down in the path of industrial logging trucks – blocking access to their traditional lands and sparking what is now the longest standing indigenous blockade in Canada

